NEW COAL COMPANY IS FORMED AT WILBURTON

Wilburton, Okla., April 28.—The Choctaw Coal company, of Wilburton and Kansas City, has been organized with a capital of $350,000.00 for the purpose of developing the W. I. Thomason tract of coal and fruit project.

lands lying north of this city and comprising about 3,480 acres. The land is about the same altitude as the Leflore and McKenna tracts and is to be exploited after the manner in which Governor Hadley, from Missouri is handling the White river

Prof. Frank Lilly is one of the most competent and popular teachers in the state, has a particularly winning personality and will make a very desirable citizen.

There has been much interest, even some agitation, manifested by the numerous members of the present faculty this afternoon when the report became current, from some source, that one and only one of the present faculty would not be retained. Even those who had felt the most secure appreciated the complications that might arise relative to any one's security when selections are made, sometimes, perhaps, on account of political pulls and reciprocal understandings.

Dr. J. J. McKenna, capitalist and representative of large eastern syndicate, who has acquired the proprietorship of the Byrd's Mill district and its attendant water supply for the purpose of developing the site into a great health and pleasure resort and its matchless water possibilities into a power transmission of large proportions, such as will make it practical to install a chain of interurban lines between the more important towns in this section and to supply each with water and power makes the city of Ada the following formal proposition. Study it carefully.

PRESENT TEACHERS ELECTED FOR NEXT YEAR

EXCEPT MISS OVERSTREET, WHOSE POSITION GOES TO PROF. FRANK LILLY.

TALAQUAH TEACHERS NOT ELECTED

Moore of Durant May Lose Out—Ada
Teachers Up in the Air.

A phone from John L. Mitch, secretary to the Board of Regents of Normal Schools of Oklahoma to the News relative to the personnel of the complement of the East Central Normal school teachers for next year afforded the following information.

The board has just concluded final determination as to those who should be selected to constitute the Ada Normal faculty. The faculty will remain the same without change, except Miss Overstreet, teacher of German, Prof. Frank Lilly, present superintendent of Johnston county schools, being elected to occupy such position.

The Board of Regents will not determine as to the personnel of the faculty of the Tahlequah school until late this evening, at the earliest, and probably not until Monday.

The Durant faculty will not be made up by the Board before Monday, and it is not known, as has been more or less insistently reported, whether President Moore of the Durant school will be retained. Mr. Mitch had nothing to say on that subject.

There has been much interest, even some agitation, manifested by the numerous members of the present faculty this afternoon when the report became current, from some source, that one and only one of the present faculty would not be retained. Even those who had felt the most secure appreciated the complications that might arise relative to any one's security when selections are made, sometimes, perhaps, on account of political pulls and reciprocal understandings.

Prof. Frank Lilly is one of the most competent and popular teachers in the state, has a particularly winning personality and will make a very desirable citizen.

Sues Medical Board.

Oklahoma City, Ok., April 28.—Dr. Calvin D. Gulley of Guthrie today instituted suit against the State Medical Board of Examiners to compel them to issue him a license to practice medicine in Oklahoma. He practiced in Indian Territory prior to statehood and in Oklahoma until the supreme court of Oklahoma held that the institutions from which he graduated were not reputable institutions. He alleges that, after statehood, graduates of the same schools were granted licenses, but that his application has been repeatedly rejected.

ATTORNEY GENERAL WEST IS TO RENEW SUITS

Guthrie, Ok., April 28.—In a letter written to a Bartlesville newspaper, Attorney General West states that if the State Bank Commissioner does not resign on May 1, he will renew his suit in the supreme court to permit the State Bank Examiner and Inspector to examine the books and records dealing with the depositors' guaranty fund. The Attorney General says:

"When the Examiner first came to me, I tried to settle the same by agreement, for the reason if I succeeded it would be much quicker. I almost succeeded in having it settled by agreement. The supreme court refused, however, to allow the State Examiner to see the books of the Bank Commissioner, on the ground that the Bank Commissioner would resign on the first of May."

If the commissioner does not resign the Attorney General will likely advise the state examiner and inspector to make another demand.

OWEN AND CARTER'S BILL TO THAT EFFECT WILL PROBABLY PASS.

COUNTIES GET FEDERAL JAILS

OWEN AND CARTER'S BILL TO THAT EFFECT WILL PROBABLY PASS.

PLATT PARK UNCERTAIN

Appropriation for It May Not Be Carried—Oklahomans Make Fight.

Washington, D. C., April 29.—Bills by Senator Owen and Representative Carter providing for the transfer of the several federal jails in Eastern Oklahoma to the counties in which they are located probably will be passed at this session of congress. The department of justice has agreed to the plan, and as Chairman Barthold of the house committee on public buildings and grounds, also is favorably disposed toward the proposition, it is almost certain that some action will be taken in the near future.

If successful the federal jails at Muskogee, McAlester, Ardmore and Ada, will be transferred to Muskogee, Pittsburg, Carter and Love counties respectively.

Indications are that the sundry civil appropriation bill as reported from the house committee will not carry an appropriation for further maintenance of Platt National park at Sulphur. This it is thought, will operate to turn over the park to the state, and this is sure to happen unless the house and senate refuse to follow the lead of Chairman Tawney's committee. The prospective action of the committee will be taken over the protest of the Oklahoma congressional delegation.

If the Tawney scheme carries, it remains to be seen what the state will do with the premises. No money is available to continue the park after July 1, and unless the legislature comes to the rescue it is feared the park will have to be closed, temporarily at least.

The people of Sulphur and the congressional delegation are up in arms against the plan. They have been forced to contend against an unfriendly committee from the very start. There is a law on the statute books which authorizes the transfer.

Judge Stanton J. Peele of the court of claims has agreed with Senator Owen that the Cherokee Indians are entitled to additional interest on the $1,111,284 judgment of 1906, in the sum of over half a million dollars.

A bill with this end in view has been introduced in the senate by Mr. Owen. If allowed, additional attorney's fees would naturally follow, but Senator Owen announced several months ago that he will not accept what would be his share. Mr. Owen was attorney for the Cherokees before his election to the senate.

Enemies of the Southwest.

Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph are the cities which are making the fight to prevent cities in Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas from getting equitable freight rates to and from the Gulf. They are making this fight because they know that if equitable rates are granted the tribute which is now being paid them can not be levied and cities in the four states mentioned will become jobbing centers to the great advantage of all the people of Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado and Texas. This advantage will come through the reduction of rates and the consequent reduction in the cost of merchandise of all kinds to the people in the states mentioned. The lower and equitable rates will enable to producers of the four states to ship their goods to the far eastern markets at a less cost which means that the producer will get more money for his products.

The people in Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma and Texas should not and will not forget the fight which is being made against them by the cities mentioned. They are in a position to demand their rights and they are asking no more than justice. The cities mentioned have been built up to a great extent, by the tribute they have collected from the people of the southwest. Now that they may lose this they are out in the open asking the interstate commerce commission to refuse a fair, just and equitable freight rate from southwestern points to and from the gulf because, they admit, it will injure them while it will benefit many millions of people who do not live in Chicago, St. Louis, St. Joseph or Kansas City.—Wichita Eagle.

NOTABLES WHO FEARED COMETS.

The close approach of the comet to the earth affects and disturbs men's minds, so that men are inwardly stirred with war-like impulses. Hence the great war almost invariably following the appearance of comets. Hence, too, the appeal to comets made by so many conqueror from William the Conqueror down to Napoleon * * Hannibal committed suicide on account of a comet. So did Mithridates. So did Louis Tomas, a wealthy landowner of Hungary, only few weeks ago. * * King Louis, the debonair, of France, died from fear of the comet. So did Louis of Savoy, mother of Francis I of France. Emperor Charles V. was so moved by the appearance of a comet in 1556 that he gave up his imperial crown and became a monk.—Edward Emerson in "Comet Lore."

WOMAN THREATENED LIVES OF HUSBAND AND CHILDREN

BOND FIXED AT $1,500—Would Kill Herself—In Custody of Sheriff.

Oklahoma City, April 29.—Mrs. Susie Tarkington, wife of T. M. Tarkington, a farmer of Spencer, Okla., pleaded not guilty to a charge preferred against her in Judge Oldfield's court Thursday afternoon that she had threatened the lives of her husband and six-year-old daughter, Ethel Tarkington. The court fixed the woman's bond at $1,500, and lacking security, she was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Information was filed in Judge Oldfield's court by a Spencer farmer, J. F. Denham, Wednesday, stating Mrs. Tarkington, who was boarding at his residence, has been guilty of a statutory offense. Testimony at Thursday's hearing established the fact that the woman was in the possession of strichine and carbolic acid and had several times threatened her own life and that of her husband and daughter.

Mrs. Tarkington was concerned in the case of Jim Johnson, who was tried before Justice Oldfield, also on a statutory charge, some weeks ago. The man is held in the county jail lacking $1,000 bond.

CHARGED WITH SMUGGLING.

Oklahoma City, April 29.—George and Clara Debrell, formerly of the Maryland hotel, appeared before United States Commissioner Oliver C. Black Thursday morning and gave bonds of $1,500 each for their appearance before the federal court. They are charged with having aided and abetted the smuggling of opium into the United States.

George Debrell was arrested last Monday by United States Marshal John Abernathy, as the result of a telegram received from the customs authorities in El Paso, Tex., which stated that 300 packages of opium valued at $7,000 had been smuggled across the border and consigned to Oklahoma City. Investigation connected Debrell with the case, as the receiver of the contraband goods, and he was arrested last Tuesday and held in the county jail for safekeeping. Mrs. Debrell was arrested the following day and held overnight in jail, until she and her husband could secure bond.

The opium so far has not been located, although federal and local officers have scoured the various resorts and watched the railroad stations, and it is thought to have been shipped out of the city. No date has been set for the Debrell trial.

SUPREME COURT

TO PASS ON RIGHT TO SPANK SCHOOL BOYS.

Washington, April 29.—For the first time in its history the supreme court of the United States is called upon to decide upon the right of a school teacher to administer corporal punishment to a pupil. The case is that of Annie Kelly, an Illinois school teacher, who in 1906, while teaching in the primary department of the public schools at Tolono, Ill., flogged Michael Burke with a pointer on orders of the principal. The Burkes were awarded damages against Miss Kelly and the court inflicted jail sentence upon the teacher.

To avoid paying damages she became a bankrupt and to escape jail she has appealed to the supreme court.

BOLD BURGLARY AT LAWTON

USE NITROGLYCERINE—SAFE BLOWN, $250 BESIDES JEWELRY MISSING.

Lawton, April 29.—Following closely upon the bold day-light knock-down and robbery of William Lowry last Monday, came a bolder burglary about 4 o'clock yesterday morning when safe blowers entered Kraker Bros.' dry goods store on Third street and blowing open the inner doors of the safe secured $250 in money.

The robbery was evidently committed by expert yeggmen. All marks of the robbery indicate speed and carefully prepared plans that were executed cleverly. In the same building are numerous other safes, but the robbers selected the only one in the building which was left with the outer door unlocked.

They entered the front door, using a small crow bar which was inserted between the door and the door frame, spreading the frame away from the door far enough to allow the tongue of the lock to pass.

OVERLOOKED JEWELRY.

A charge of nitroglycerine was placed behind the inner door and exploded with a dynamite cap. The robbers hurriedly took the money from the cash compartment and absconded leaving about $600 worth of jewelry in the bottom of the safe, which had been concealed by torn bits of paper and pieces of wood mangled by the explosion.

The night cook at Sid's restaurant reports that he heard the shot at exactly the hour of 4 o'clock and thought the safe in the First National bank had been blown. The robbery, however, was not discovered until daylight when the owners of the store appeared to open up for business.

The police and sheriff's force were busy yesterday looking for the robbers, but no definite clews were unearthed. Local parties are thought by the police to have been the guilty ones. A stick of dynamite and a short safe blower's fuse were found near the broken safe.

WAR ON CIGARETTE STARTED IN OKLAHOMA

CHURCHES AID MOVEMENT IN SUNDAY SERMONS—PLANS ARE MADE.

Oklahoma City, April 29.—The first gun in the war of enforcement of the state anti-cigarette sale law will be fired within the month by the W. C. T. U. of Oklahoma City. At the regular meeting Thursday it was planned to have an "Anti-Cigarette" Sunday in the local churches and to have some well known speaker on that day, who will talk to the young men and women about the evil of the "pill."

In addition to this steps will be taken to show the state enforcement officers where they are lacking in efficiency to enforce the law as it reads. In many cases the members of the W. C. T. U. say the sale of cigarettes and cigarette papers is made without any fear of prosecution.

The law, one of the strictest of any state in the country, if enforced would make it practically impossible for any smoker to obtain them. The act reads:

"That it shall be a misdemeanor for any person, firm, company or corporation to give, sell or otherwise dispose of any cigarettes, cigarette papers or any substitute therefor, and every offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $500. The same fine shall be imposed for bringing any such cigarettes or papers into the state."

Upon this latter the members of the W. C. T. U. claim they can prosecute several manufacturers of cigarettes and also the wholesale tobacco houses in the city. Recently an order was issued by the authorities warning several dealers of violation and it stopped the sale for a short time, but it seems to have broken out again. The W. C. T. U. will appoint a committee to investigate matters and to ascertain, if possible, any violations or contemplated violations of the law.

OIL WELL SHOT AT 4:22 YESTERDAY

HILLS AND SURROUNDING PLACES LITERALLY CROWDED WITH INTERESTED SIGHTSEERS.

40 QUARTS OF NITROGLYCERINE IS USED

Tremendous Explosion—1100 Feet Under Ground $4,100 Offered for Forty Acres.

After many hindrances and unexpected delays, the oil well was successfully shot at 4:22 yesterday afternoon.

Long before the explosion took place the hills and places at a safe distance from the well were literally covered by crowds of anxious on-lookers.

That there was more than ordinary interest shown by the people of the town and surrounding country was manifest all during this week since the report came out that preparations were being made to spring the well.

Since the shooting, the well has been capped and will not be opened until Monday when the real development will be announced.

Jim Grayson, the negro who owns the forty acres at the well refused $4100 for his land yesterday. This offer was made to him by an oil man who evidently knows his business. Monday is the day set to open the well and determine the results.

HEARING ON EQUALIZATION OF CREEK ALLOTMENTS

Pending Bill to Authorize Creeks to Sue in Court of Claims for Full Quota.

Washington, April 29.—The house committee on Indian affairs today gave a hearing to the proposed equalization of the Creek allotments. A bill to this end introduced by Senator Owen has been favorably reported by the Senate committee on Indian Affairs, but there is opposition to reporting the bill out of the house committee, largely because it calls for an appropriation by congress to bring about the equalization. The agreement between the United States and the Creek Nation fixed the Creek allotment at the rate of $1,040 worth of land, but in the making up of the rolls a number of names were omitted, and there being insufficient funds in the treasury to settle with all, Congress will be expected to appropriate the balance to give each Indian who can substantiate his claim in the court of claims, his $1,040 apportionment.

The pending bills seek to authorize the neglected Creeks to sue in the court of claims for their full quota.

After the contest was over several of the boys rode the steers to the great amusement of the visitors. Dave McClure roped a steer without a bridle on his pony.

POWER AND WATER PROPOSITION ACCEPTED

THAT ADA WILL RECEIVE A SUPPLY OF GOOD WATER IS NO DREAM.

MEETING ANIMATED

Discuss Ada's Interest—Some Emphatic Statements—Must Have Water—How It Will Be Obtained.

Pursuant to a call by E. H. Lucas, president of the 25,000 Club, requesting the citizens of Ada to meet in the Club rooms at 8:30 last evening for the purpose of receiving and discussing a proposition to secure a sufficient water supply for the city from an Oklahoma City and New York syndicate, reported to have bought the Byrd's Mill site through their promoters, a large number of business men met at the appointed hour. After the meeting was called to order and its object explained by the chairman, who exhibited two bottles of water, one from Byrd's mill and one from our city tank, saying it would not take an expert to see the greater excellence of the Byrd's Mill water. He invited Dr. McKenna to make a statement to the citizens as to the nature of the promoters plans for furnishing that city with water and possibly electric power.

Dr. McKenna said he had nothing to say only that he and other capitalists had purchased the Byrd's Mill town site, creeks, water and all with a view of furnishing Ada and other cities within a radius of one hundred miles with water and electric power.

42 Club With Mrs. Rodarmel.

The meeting of the 42 Club Friday evening with Mrs. Rodarmel was pronounced one of the most enjoyable of the season.

The members present were Mr. and Mrs. Torbett, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Ebey and Mrs. L. M. King. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kice, Dr. and Mrs. LeFevre, Mr. Maddox and Miss Torbett, Mr. Evans and Miss Mason.

Here are a few of the tortures Miss Clark was made to endure, as testified by the girls who were summoned to appear before the board of education.

She was blindfolded and made to eat three-inch pipes of macaroni after it had been boiled in soap for half an hour. While partaking of the nuseating mixture, the members of the society danced about her and told her she was eating angle worms. Three raw oysters were placed before her and when she ate them she was told she had swallowed pollywogs.

A cocktail made of molasses, vinegar, salt, pepper and white of egg was her next portion and this was followed by a concoction of milk and sugar which she was made to drink from a nursing bottle. These were "kitchen stunts," so-called, handled down from the early history of the sorority.

While the victim was struggling to free herself, the members stood about in groups and in audible tones discussed the probable effect that the "refreshments" would have upon the hazed girl and whether or not she would be able to survive them.

Sealing wax melted by a candle was allowed to drip on the arm of the victim and this constituted her "branding."

A red hot poker was held before the gaze of the victim. Then blindfolded

Miss Nettie Goodpasture of Pauls Valley will have charge of the model primary department. Miss Verna Van Wormer of Ardmore will assist in the public school music and voice and Robert I. Shrinkage in Railroads.

Guthrie, Okla., April 29.—A shrinkage of $44,699,634 in the value of thirteen Oklahoma railroads must have occurred within the last year if the returns now being made to the state board of equalization for the 1910 assessment are true. Thirteen railroads which were assessed at a total of $179,097,086 in 1910, return their value for 1910 at $134,487,352, or forty-four million less than they were assessed last year. It must be considered, however, that the railroads always return a valuation much smaller than their assessment, and the apparent decrease, as a rule, represents nothing more than what the railroads believe they are overtaxed.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuel, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery destroys the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. ONE DOLLAR BOTTLES GUARANTEED Ramsey Drug Co., Special Agents.

BALLINGER EMPHATIC IN STATEMENTS

NO INTEREST IN CUNNINGHAM CLAIMS.

Gives "Deliberate Lie" to Mr. Glavis. Bangs Table With Book.

Washington, April 29.—R. A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior, had an opportunity today to throw back some of the charges made against him in the Ballinger-Pinchot unpleasantness. He embraced it with a keen appetite for trouble and did not hesitate to characterize as "maliciousness" the attempts to impeach his official integrity. Mr. Ballinger on the witness stand gave the investigation, which has dragged itself into weariness, new snap and vigor. Mr. Ballinger, with a party of friends from Washington society, displaced Mrs. Pinchot, mother of Gifford Pinchot, in the first row of seats, which have been reserved for them. Every time the name of L. R. Glavis was brought forward by Mr. Vertes, attorney for Mr. Ballinger, in direct examination, Secretary Ballinger took a whack at it. Asked about the order for the clear listing of the Cunningham coal lands in Alaska, Mr. Ballinger declared that he "ordered the clear listing of the claims and would do it again on the evidence that was then before me."

Mr. Ballinger spoke emphatically. Occasionally in laying down a volume from which he read he banged the table in a way to keep the committee from dozing.

"It is a willful and deliberate lie," he said slowly and carefully, of a statement by Mr. Glavis, "because I did not know the people at the time."

This was in answer to testimony given by Mr. Glavis that Mr. Ballinger had been connected with the Cunningham claimants.

"I had no interest in them," he said of the Cunningham claims. "No more interest than you or any other man who knew nothing of them. I never had any legal or professional business with any of the claimants. There was nothing that I had to do with them in a direct way, or in attempting to influence others."

"Was Mr. Glavis ever kept from his work of investigation?" asked Mr. Vertes.

"So far as I know, he was never hampered," replied the secretary.

WATTERSON COMMENTS ON YELLOW JOURNALISM

Says Gaynor Elected Mayor of New York Despite a United Press Against Him.

Louisville, Ky., April 29.—In commenting on the speech of Mayor Gaynor at the Associated Press banquet in New York Henry Watterson says:

"Mr. Gaynor and the press—Mayor Gaynor served long enough as a reporter to get the hang of it. Obviously his audience, although the subject one night almost say the victim of his criticism, was with him. It was such close sympathy, indeed that it refused a hearing the immediate object of his attack. This was clearly discourteous and most unjust. Free speech should be denied nowhere. Judge Gaynor was elected Mayor of New York in the teeth of a press substantially united against him, and implacable in its campaign methods. The elder Harrison used to be elected and re-elected Mayor of Chicago against the opposition of a similarly united press. The voters, as a rule, everywhere resent newspaper dictation. As the newspapers become less and less esteemed and respected by the body of the people on account of their invasions of private right, their detective work and their scolding temper, their influence is bound to decline, and until these shortcomings are mended it will continue to decline. Other than these Hearst papers might be summoned to answer this serious accusation. Even where hatred and venom do not exude there appears ungenerous or unprincipled rivalry. The spirit of sheer contradiction is rife with those that seek to be exceptional. In calling one of them to book with a signal case in point, Judge Gaynor does the public and the press a service. The use, however, of actual forgery is so rare that the mayor's exhibit had all the qualities of a genuine sensation; it was damning. Such an object lesson should travel to the ends of the earth on contemporary journalism and sink deep in the heart whilst arousing a sense of shame in the mind of every American journalist. There is little doubt that the press at large is learning the lesson that integrity and cleanliness pay and that good humor is an asset."

HETTIE GREEN TO RETIRE

Her Fortune of $50,000,000 to Go to Daughter, Son Not a Financier. Declines to Give Public Plans.

New York, April 29.—Mrs. Hetty Green, one of the world's richest women, and the most picturesque figure in American financial circles, has begun to shift her burdens upon the shoulders of her daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Wilkes. Mrs. Green is not going to retire altogether from the arena of business; she could not possibly do that even though she is 73 years of age, and her health has begun to fail; but she is going to transfer a large burden of her business responsibilities to younger shoulders, she said today, and at the same time she preaches an eloquent sermon to the American women, praising her native shrewdness, but criticizing her with frankness.

Mrs. Green thinks that the men are as extravagant as the women; many men, she believes, are more extravagant than women. The rich people of today live amidst too much adornment and think too much of their personal pleasures. She says it is just as easy to make money now as it ever was that the women now have a far better opportunity to acquire wealth than they had twenty years ago.

Son Not a Money Maker.

While Mrs. Green did not say so, it is believed that she will practically give the entire management of her $50,000,000 fortune to her daughter. She had hoped that her son, Edward H. R. Green, might prove a master of finance, but the money making traits seemed to skip the son and settle in the daughter.

Wearing her proverbial black dress and bonnet, with her white hair combed back over her head, Mrs. Green sat at her desk in the Chemical National bank, looking somewhat pale and wan, although her keen eyes were just as shrewdly alert as ever.

Declines to Give Public Plans.

"You couldn't expect me to make public my plans," she said, "as it has never been my custom. But it is true that my health has been bad for months, and my physicians have convinced me that I must not continue personally conducting the details of my business affairs." Here she smiled quaintly, and continued: "You know by financial affairs are rather large. I believe the newspapers have said so, and they call me the richest woman in the world. I do not like to dispute the newspapers, so I shall allow them to continue publishing their stories about me.

"I have been handling business and financial affairs for a great many years. It has become a part of my life; I get my recreation from it. Where another woman might get joy from a trip I get pleasure from business. Not that I need more money but just because I have an inherent liking for it.

"I have been pleased at the aptitude which my daughter shows for business. I have tried quietly to train her for business and instill a liking for it in her nature, for some day she will have a very big estate to handle."
